

Charles Heard

Charles grew up in Connecticut where he played high school tennis and competed in USTA tournaments.

While in Connecticut, Charles was a tennis instructor for Fairfield County where he taught tennis to children of all ages and skill levels.

After high school, Charles attended Becker College where he competed at the collegiate level as the number one singles and doubles player for four consecutive years, earning NECC first team all-conference in singles play. Charles graduated with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in sports management.

At Becker, Charles also gained valuable experience serving as the assistant coach for the men's and women's tennis teams. After graduating Charles moved to the Cape, became certified by the USPTA, and worked as the Heat Pro and supervisor for the Town of Dennis Recreation Department. In addition, Charles was a Tennis Pro at Midcape Tennis and Racquet Club.

In his free time, Charles enjoys fishing, going to the beach, and playing tennis with his wife and two daughters.
