

Nikki Tourtelotte

Nikki is a PTR-certified coach who grew up in Massachusetts. She played high school tennis at the No. 1 singles position for four years, was a 4x MVP and a 3x Player of the Year for the Merrimack Valley Conference. She went on to play Division 1 tennis at Providence College, and was a four year starter for both singles and doubles. Nikki helped lead her team to a first-place finish at the New England Championship her senior year.

Nikki holds a Master's degree in Teaching from Northeastern University and is licensed in Elementary and Special Education in MA.

In her spare time, Nikki loves reading, going to the beach and being with her family – including her four wonderful children. When she's not with her kids, she can be found on the court! Nikki thoroughly enjoys playing on Kingsbury's MITA Champs team with her amazing teammates.
