

Matt Romick

Matt was born in St. Joseph, Michigan, and raised in Findlay, Ohio. He studied Professional Tennis Management at Ferris State University before moving to Tampa, Florida, in 2003, where he had the privilege of teaching alongside renowned coaches Steve Smith and Vic Braden. Over the next 16 years, Matt established himself as a respected tennis professional at Harbour Island Athletic Club. Recently, he chose to relocate in order to be closer to his family.

As a PTR-certified coach, Matt is dedicated to helping players develop efficient strokes and a deeper understanding of the game. He believes there is no single right or wrong way to hit a tennis ball—only efficient and inefficient techniques. By focusing on the natural laws of physics and the geometry of the court, Matt guides his players toward building strokes that are both effective and sustainable.

Inspired by the words of Rumi, Matt strives to embody the idea: “Let the beauty of what you love be what you do.”
