

Jeffrey Chang

PTR-certified Professional Jeffrey Chang is Kingsbury Club's Director of Junior Tennis

Jeffrey grew up in Grafton MA where he competed in USTA tournaments, played Varsity singles and doubles for 4 years in Grafton MA Southern Worcester County League and went undefeated in his junior and senior years, leading the team to the SWCL title four years in a row.

Jeffrey worked as a Senior Pro at Emilson YMCA and is currently the Yonex Tennis New England Rep/Dealer. In addition, Jeffrey has also served as Assistant Director of Tennis at the Woodlands Country Club in Andover and as the coach of Hingham High Boys' Varsity Tennis Team for the past 3 seasons where they have remained undefeated. Throughout his teaching career Jeffrey has been in charge of programming for early development red ball players, to tournament level competitors. His goal at Kingsbury is to help players reach their potential and make a positive impact on the development of their game.

Tennis isn't the only thing that Jeffrey excels at. He also has a Bachelor's degree in Architecture from Boston Architectural College and MIT, does concept art/costume designs alongside his art mentor for games, movies, and shows such as Game of Thrones, Hobbit and Lord of the Rings. In his downtime, he likes to study art and paint portraits and landscapes.
